From Rif Campomuletto you will go down to the ski resorts of Melette 2000 and right in front of the gondola you take the dirt road that leads up to Mount Longara. Once you arrive at the top of Mount Longara before going downhill, you will see on the left side a monument in honor of Pope John Paul II, after he visited these "pleasant" places as he described the area. Once you arrive at the junction at the bottom of the hill keep going left (right goes to Malga Campomulo) through an old military road that pass by Malga Fiaretta where right after you will find a water spring to fill your bottle with fresh water. As well the landscape is made of fir, larch and mountain grasslands. Following the trail home of the cross-country ski tour, you will arrive at the old Malga Boscosecco. You will go uphill to the junction of Campofilone and keeping right you will arrive to Malga Fiara, usually populated with sheeps during all summer that thanks to the essences of the mountain grass, are able to produce a great milk necessary to creat great cheeses. You go along Malga Fiara and after approximately 400 m.keep left at the junction. We go downhill and after Malga Mandrielleyou keep left again at the new junction.. Follow the road that leads to the monumental area of Mount Ortigara an area that saw the most cruel battles with thousands of casualties during IWW. Continue to climb until you arrive at Piazzale Lozze. Once there follow the street until you get to Bivio delle Saline, keep right and climb fairly gently towards Mount Forno until you reach the junction Mecenseffy Road. Once there you will go downhill about 4km until you arrive to Malga Galmarara. Estimate arrival late afternoon - complementary cocktail, dinner and accomodation

DAY 2: From Malga Galmarara to Rifugio Campolongo

Distance: 37.6 km

Duration: 6H

Total Climb: +1251m -1312m Average Slope: +5.5 -6.3 Maximum +23.0 -23.5

Level of Difficulty: intermediate/difficult

Starting from Malga Galmarara you will climb towards Busa del Molton, leaving Mount Zoviello on the side arriving to the location call Localita' Monumenti. Here and there you will see some ruins from the 1st World War. Also with a bit of luck and keeping silence, you will possibly encounter colonies of marmots. You carry on going uphill towards Bocchetta Portule fontanelli where you will find one of the few rare springs around the plateau of Asiago. Once at Bocchetta Portule you have to proceed downhill towards the area of Malga Larici. Proceed very carefully because the road is very bumpy. You will proceed going to Malga Porta Manazzo where you will see one of the best views of the Valsugana. Continue on the road closed to motorized traffic until you get to Trentino County territory. Descending towards the Forte Spitz Verle (on the right) you will get to the location named Vezzena and its eponymous hotel. Cross the main road and after 500m take the dirt road to the left that through Malga Basson di Sopra, leads you to Camporosa. After a short but challenging climb you will reach Malga Mandrielle and then after less than 5 km to the lodge Rifugio Campolongo.
